

Looking for a place to hunt or fish? Try a Walk-in Area or Hunter Management Area!

Access Yes Donations = Hunting & Fishing Access

- 100% of donations go directly to providing hunting and fishing access!
- For 2010, the PLPW Access Program provided hunting access to 3.47 million private and public acres!
- For all information on Walk-In Hunting and Fishing and Hunter Management Areas, visit the WGFD website under Public Access - Private Lands Public Wildlife.
- $1 Access Yes Donation = 4.2 acres of hunting access!

Hunter Management Area (HMA)

is a block of private land that has been enrolled for public hunting access. Hunters must receive permission from the Department prior to entering the HMA. See the WGFD website for a list of current HMAs, information about each one and how to obtain permission. HMAs are only open during specific dates and for specific species.

Walk-In Hunting Area (WIA)

is a block of private land enrolled for public hunting access. Hunters do not need to ask permission. Simply locate the area using a WIA atlas or the WGFD website and walk on in. WIAs are only open during specific dates for specific species. Be sure to read and follow rules and regulations provided in the WIA atlas.
